

THE NIGHTINGALE'S * SONG.

SUNG BY

* Miss Marie Tempest *

IN THE

"TYROLIENNE."

* BY *

CARL * ZELLER.

40

NEW YORK

Published by T. B. HARMS & CO. 18 East 22nd St

HOWARD, FARWELL & CO.
20-22 & 24 West Fifth Street,
ST. PAUL, MINN.
Anything and Everything Musical.

Feb.

THE NIGHTINGALE'S SONG.

from
"La Tyrolienne."

Words by Grace Carleton.

Music by Carl Zeller.

Andante.

Voice.

1. When a youth of twen - ty
2. Tho' 'tis sev'n - ty years a -

Piano.

f

years, ——— Blest with all that Life en - dears, ——— 'Neath the go, ——— And the fee - ble step is slow, ——— While the stars that shone a - bove, ——— While he kissed his own true stream - let mir - ror's there, ——— Wrink - led brow, and look of love, Oft he heard, in wood - land vale, Sweet - ly care, In his heart he fond - ly sighs; Well - a - sing the Night - in - gale! Long since then by day! how Time it flies! But that song sounds night, by day, His heart has heard that lay!

just as dear. In moon - light sil - ver clear!

rit.

REFRAIN.

Once more, sing on, once more! Chant thy lay Night - in -

p

gale! — Once more, sing on, once more, — Sweet - ly sing — o'er hill — and dale! — Once more, sing on, once more! — Chant thy lay — Night - in - gale! — Once more, sing on, once more! — Sweet-ly sing o'er hill and dale! — rit.

a tempo.
sf
a tempo.
cresc.
rit.
D. C.

Be sure and try this on your Piano

THE PRETTY LITTLE MAIDEN'S SEA-TRIP.

SONG.

Written by J. P. HARRINGTON.

Composed by GEORGE LE BRUNN.

Moderato.

1. Bil - ly Brown he came to me, just a - bout a week a - go;

"Let us take our sweet - hearts for the day, down the bay, what d'yer say?"

Copyright, MDCCCXCIII, by FRANCIS, DAY & HUNTER.

Complete Copies at all Music Stores.